

CSCUBS

Computer Science Conference for University of Bonn Students

21st of May, 2014
Dies Academicus

Call for Papers

The 1st Computer Science Conference for University of Bonn Students (CSCUBS) will be held on May 21, 2014 (Dies Academicus) at the University of Bonn. CSCUBS is organised by PhD- and MSc-Students and aims to promote research in computer science and scientific exchange among students. The participation of researchers and practitioners of the field is also encouraged. CSCUBS intends to provide the ability to connect with each other and engage in discussions about the participants' respective research and development, and also to establish opportunities for knowledge and technology sharing. Submissions to CSCUBS should describe new research or development related to Computer Science, including University projects, theses, outcomes of professional or leisure activities.

Important Dates

- ▶ Submission Deadline: April 16, 2014.
- ▶ Acceptance Notification: April 30, 2014.
- ▶ Submission of Final Version: May 14, 2014.
- ▶ Presentation of the Submission at the CSCUBS: May 21, 2014.

Submissions

We welcome submissions from all areas of Computer Science. You can choose one or more of the following formats:

- ▶ Posters (A0 format)
- ▶ Demos
- ▶ Short Papers (4 – 6 pages)
- ▶ Full Papers (10 – 12 pages)
- ▶ Lightning Talks (one or two slides)

Your submission may be based on seminars, labs, your thesis or a side project. While submissions in English are strongly encouraged, submissions in German are accepted as well. A template for the submissions will be provided on the homepage of this conference. Submissions will undergo a peer review process that is coordinated by the program committee. The accepted papers are going to be published online.
